

The Embassy of Peru
is pleased to announce the Peruvian film

Dragons: Destiny of Fire

As part of the 2nd IBERO-AMERICAN CHILDREN'S FILM FESTIVAL

Director: Eduard Schuldt
In Spanish with no subtitles

At the GALita Children's Festival
333 14th St NW
Washington, DC 20010

Saturday, February 27, 3pm

Synopsis

John John is a young dragon who was adopted by a family of condors living on an island in Lake Titicaca. Although his parents raise him like one of their own, John John knows in the depths of his heart that he isn't a condor. Longing to know who he is, John John embarks on a journey in which he learns his true identity and his ultimate destiny.

---

GALita produces children's theater in both Spanish and English that inspires a sense of joy, discovery, pride and identity in the community's youngest children. Accessible to both Spanish and English speaking children, GALita's productions spark their curiosity and tolerance for cultures other than their own.

For tickets and more information call (202) 234 7174